Short Description

A Portrait of a Young Man Aged 23 Wearing a Ruff

Lorenz Strauch was born in Nuremberg in 1554 and was known as a painter of portraits, architectural scenes, paintings on glass, and an engraver. The latter probably gave him the most notoriety. He engraved 22 views of the market place in Nuremberg in 1599.

Museums where his work can be seen include Brunswick, two views of Nuremberg; Venice (Correr Museum), Portrait of a Man; and Nuremberg, Self Portrait.
